Our History

The history of the Trialogue Club International traces back to 1993. Since then the Club acts as a venue for informal communication on major issues of the Russian foreign policy and global security.

Today it is a meeting place for discussions and a source of up-to-date analytics on the key issues of the global agenda, international security for diplomats, experts, businessmen and journalists.

Our aim is to improve international mutual understanding through ensuring the participation of the Club members in the regular Club sessions and other events of the Club, and through providing them with exclusive information materials and consultations from the experts of the Club and its partner organizations.

Our Sessions

The meetings of the Club take place 4 times per year in Moscow and the Moscow Region. Sessions are traditionally held in a face-to-face format, comprising keynote speeches followed by Q&A session and informal open discussions. The meetings are organized by the Club itself or in cooperation with its partners, other think tanks, and the members of the Club.

Speaking in an open and frank manner, everybody has a chance to contribute to in-depth analysis of the topical global issues.

Since the Club's inception more than 120 sessions have taken place.
